

INCLUSIVE LANGUAGE BUILDS COMMUNITY

Practice active allyship: Educate yourself on how your neighbors may be different from you.
Practice kindness and
respect when interacting with them. Confront friends when using
language or overt
ignorance of others.

Inclusive
language
acknowledges
diversity,
conveys
respect to all people, is sensitive to
differences,
and promotes
equal opportunities

WHAT IS IT?

It is language that avoids the use of certain expressions or words that might be considered to exclude
or be harmful to particular groups of people. There is no
othering of people
based off their identities

What you are comfortable with may be passed someone else's limit. Be mindful of others!
